BALL LEAGUE ELECTS BOARD OF CONTROL

The Tonopah Mines Baseball league, composed of five teams, representing the Tonopah Mining company, the Belmont Development company, the West End and Extension companies and the town team, has elected a board of control as follows: Thomas Grazer, L. R. Robins, W. Wilson, Fred Ninnis and George Southworth. George Southworth is not manager of the league, but is a hustler of balls and bats for his town team.

SELLS STAGE LINE INTEREST

Jack Alling has disposed of his half interest in the Manhattan stage line to Ed Turner, a well-known Tonopah resident. Mr. Alling left on the Bishop stage today for southern California.

SALO FOUND GUILTY OF ASSAULT AND BATTERY

Oscar Salo, a Finn, who was charged with assault and battery, having cut Matt Matheson on November 15, 1920, and who returned to Tonopah a few days ago after having been a fugitive since the fracas, had his hearing before a jury this afternoon in Justice Cuddy's court. The jury was out 16 minutes and brought in a verdict of guilty as charged. He will be sentenced on Monday morning at 10 o'clock. Salo was remanded to jail, as he was unable to secure bondsmen.

UP TO ASSESSOR

Land that is assessed at $140 per acre near Reno has recently been boosted to $1000 per acre when the Southern Pacific wanted it. The Reno papers are calling the attention of the assessor to the valuation of the land. It should add materially to the tax roll of Washoe county.

AMUSEMENTS

WILL ROGERS AND LARRY SEMON TODAY

Another double bill will be shown at the Butler today. Will Rogers, in his inimitable way, will be seen in "Honest Hutch," the best true-to-life comedy since Rip Van Winkle, and Larry Semon in his latest two-reel comedy, "The Hick." "Money makes the man," quoth the sage. Or Hutchins, known to Willow Bend as "Honest Hutch," thought he had found $100,000 and immediately began to act that way. Where he had been a worthless town loafer, he became in his own mind a plutocrat. Will Rogers plays "Honest Hutch" as only Rogers can, and how he makes a man of himself, and uplifts his faculty through his effort to convince his neighbors that he had been saving money, so that he could spend that which he had found without causing embarrassing questions, provides an absorbing story.

And now comes Larry Semon with more fun in a minute of this comedy than you ever thought possible in a lifetime-trained animal, stirring thrills, surprises and pretty girls are part of this great fun-maker. Tomorrow, a program made up of short subjects, the last episode of "The Last City," Eddie Polo in "The King of the Circus," four acts of standard screen vaudeville and Charlie Chaplin in his three-reel comedy, "Shoulder Arms," which is being repeated by popular request.

Monday, "Forbidden Fruit," Cecil B. De Mille's big production.

WILD FLOWERS WILL BE ON EXHIBITION

(By Associated Press)
SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., April 9.—Wild flowers from all sections of the state are to be on exhibition at the seventh annual exhibit of the California Wild Flower Conservation league, to be held here April 28-30. Favorable weather conditions during the year and an increasing public interest indicate that the display will be one of the largest and finest on the coast, according to Mrs. Bertha M. Rice, director of the show.

EXPEDITION TO HUNT THREE TOED HORSE

(By Associated Press)
REDLANDS, Cal., April 9.—Paleontologists are preparing for an expedition into the Moreno hills, near here, following announcement that fossils of a two and three-toed horse have been found in a mountain canyon there. The discovery was made by two prospectors, and the fossils, together with bones of a camel of prehistoric origin have been sent to the Smithsonian Institute. These horses, according to William A. Bryan, curator of the Los Angeles Museum of History, Science and Art, are between 100,000 and 200,000 years old, living prior to the Pleistocene age.
